GDPR and Privacy

By providing all the details on this form you are consenting for your information to be used for administering your membership, including receiving our monthly newsletter "The Prompt". Your information may be stored manually or electronically. Any personal information you give to us will always be processed in accordance with the latest UK Data Protection Acts and Regulations. We will only use the personal information you provide to deliver the services you have requested, or subsequently specifically consented to. We will not make your personal details available outside our organisation, unless obliged by law. Should you, at any time, wish to amend your details or resign your membership you may do so easily, by writing to the Membership Secretary at the above address, or by e-mail. We will retain your information only for as long as you remain a member and then for one year after you cease to be a member in case you decide to rejoin. Questions regarding this Privacy Policy should be addressed to Edinburgh People's Theatre at the above address.

The Publicity team often take photographs during the rehearsal process and production for: keeping our patrons and social media followers aware of upcoming performances; press releases; theatre foyer displays; production reviews; and the club's digital and paper archive. If you do not wish to have your photograph taken, it is the individual's responsibility to make the Membership Secretary or Director aware of this.

If you would like to make your contact details available to other members of the club on a printed membership list please tick the boxes below. Members of the EPT committee and authorised people acting on behalf of the club (e.g. a director) may still request access to your contact information regardless of your answers below, where it is for official club business.

- I give permission to make these contact details available to members of the club until further notice:*
