

An(other) Inspector Calls

by Andy Moseley

Easter weekend 2020. It's the height of lockdown, but the Gower family are still gathering at their Highland retreat to celebrate their daughter's engagement to the son of the founder of one of America's largest pharmaceutical companies. Their celebrations are cut short when Detective Inspector Anne Gould arrives unannounced. She is investigating the death of a foreign woman found in an Edinburgh flat with her three month old baby by her side. How could any of the Gower family be connected to someone like that? Very easily, as DI Gould's investigation reveals.

An(other) Inspector Calls is a new play that asks whether anything has really changed since Priestley's seminal work.

'Will leave audiences informed and moved about how the headlines impact real people in real ways.' Literary Department, Bush Theatre, London
