

Edinburgh people's theatre - on the fringe since 1947

The Farndale Avenue Housing Estate Townswomen's Guild Dramatic Society's Production of

Macbeth

By David McGillivray and Walter Zerin Jr

50 years on from its Edinburgh premiere, Edinburgh People's Theatre bring a brand new production of David McGillivray and Walter Zerin Jr's mangled Macbeth to the Fringe. The Farndale Avenue Housing Estate Townswomen's Guild Dramatic Society attempt to bring their startlingly original production of Macbeth to the stage. Under the carefully massacred eye of adjudicator George Peach, events conspire hilariously against them, leading to a play that goes horribly and wonderfully wrong!
